

Genesis 3:1-19

Genesis 3

<sup>1</sup> Now the snake was more crafty than any of the wild animals the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, 'Did God really say, "You must not eat from any tree in the garden?"'

<sup>2</sup> The woman said to the snake, 'We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden but <sup>3</sup> God did say, "You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die."' "

<sup>4</sup> 'You will not certainly die,' the snake said to the woman. <sup>5</sup> 'For God knows that when you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing God and evil.'

<sup>6</sup> When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

<sup>7</sup> Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realised that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Genesis 3

<sup>8</sup> Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord among the trees of the garden. <sup>9</sup> But the Lord God called to the man, ‘Where are you?’”

<sup>10</sup> He answered, ‘I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid.’

<sup>11</sup> And he said, ‘Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree which I commanded you not to eat?’

<sup>12</sup> The man said, ‘The woman you put here with me – she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it.

<sup>13</sup> Then the Lord God said to the woman, ‘What is this you have done?’

The woman said, ‘The snake deceived me, and I ate.’

<sup>14</sup> So the Lord God said this, “ Because you have done this, ‘Cursed are you above all livestock and wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life.

Genesis 3

15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heels.'

16 To the woman he said, 'I will make your pains in childbearing very severe; and with painful labour you will give birth to children. Your desire will be for your husband and he will rule over you.'

17 To Adam he said, "Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree which I commanded you, 'You must not eat of it,'

"Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.

18 It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the fields.

19 By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return."

The First Act of Sin

Adam & Eve Ate It

When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was desirable to make one wise, she took from its fruit and ate and she gave also to her husband who was with her, and he ate.

Genesis 3:6

The Follow-Up With Sin

And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.

Genesis 3:7

Hiding From God

<sup>8</sup> Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the Lord God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the Lord among the trees of the garden. <sup>9</sup> But the Lord God called to the man, “Where are you?”

(Genesis 3)

The Blame Game

<sup>12</sup> The man said, 'The woman you put here with me – she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it.'

<sup>13</sup> Then the Lord God said to the woman, 'What is this you have done?'

The woman said, 'The snake deceived me, and I ate.'

Romans 5:12: "Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, and in this way death came to all people, because all sinned."
